

Garrett Transit Service seeks input in public opinion survey

From Staff Reports

OAKLAND—Garrett Transit Service has made available a public opinion survey to gather input concerning public transportation needs and services in the county.

The survey is part of community outreach efforts for a study that will result in an updated five-year plan for public transportation services in Garrett County.

The public survey is accessible online at www.kfhgroup.com/garrettcountytdp/. Individual survey responses will be kept confidential and will not be identified by the name of the respondent.

Paper surveys will also be available at the following locations:

- Garrett County Government, 203 S. Fourth St., Oakland.

- Garrett County Community Action Committee, 104 E. Center St., Oakland.

- Garrett County Department of Social Services, 12578 Garrett Highway, Oakland.

- Mary Browning Senior Center, 104 E. Center St., Oakland.

- Grantsville Senior Center, 125 Durst Court, Grantsville.

- Friendsville Community Center, 947 Community Drive, Friendsville.

- Ruth Enlow Library of Garrett County, 6 N. Second

St., Oakland.

The public opinion survey is survey is being conducted through April 19.

Results will help inform the study team regarding the service options that should be considered for inclusion in the five-year plan update.
